

Sooth Lady Wine

Matt Corby

You sold me out to the man (to the man, to the man)
With the nuclear plant in his hands
But he don't understand
The free world in its demands. All way long
Get together,
Get to the seventh state
With you on tomorrow's ideas.
I'm more than terrified to care
So know that
I'm bound to you all day. You sold me out to the man (to the man, to the man)
With the nuclear plant in his hands
But he don't understand
The free world in its demands. If you feel alright,
Let yourself dance;
Don't sit out tonight.
If you feel the right,
Get off your phone;
Take it in tonight.
If you see the light,
Don't turn away;
It's reality
With no fear inside.
We can begin to feel the happiness,
Sooth lady wine.
Reconcile
Not in the way that I know and like
One new battle, two new battle
Try for something new.
I wanted so long to write it down
For no one to decode.
