The Winterflame

Beseech

A candlelight leads my way
Through this haunted night
A wind blows cold into my face
As the shadows catches meDon't you hear the whispers
Calling out your name?
Don't you feel the presence
Of the wolves and what they bring?Don't you see the evil?
It makes you want to scream
Don't you ever look at me?
I am your dreamCan you see where I am now?
Is this reality or fiction in my head?
The cross has fallen and turned to dust
I guess I'm losing it or maybe I'm deadDon't you hear the whispers
Calling out your name?
Don't you feel the presence
Of the wolves and what they bring?Don't you see the evil?
It makes you want to scream
Don't you ever look at me?
I am your dreamAnd so I walk on to figure out
What force has gotten me inside their care
I am possessed, there's no way back
I have to face it, forever blackOoh, catch me as I fall
Reach out for me, hear my call
Chase away the demons, underneath my skin
Can you take away my evil sins?The touch of evil has made me strong
I learned that good ones are always wrong
The force of darkness has got my soul
I am eternal now, I will never grow oldAnd so the candle burns and leads the way
To eternal darkness and far away
