

Love to Hate

Ozzy Osbourne

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Another day and more bad news, I wonder who died today
I feel so numb, I might as well be dead
I live on hope and legal dope, addicted to the system
Is it real or does it just live within my head? I guess, they lied to make me feel afraid
I can't believe a single word they sayCry another tear
'Cause the devil will not wait
Living in fear
Why do people love to hate?
Love to hateDesensitized and victimized, the action never stops
Could it be a smokescreen to keep us satisfied?
Insecure and paranoid, I'm trying to survive
I can't tell if I'm hearing truth or liesI'll never make it to the Holy Gates
No ones gonna matter, the fire of Hell awaitsCry another tear
'Cause the devil will not wait
Living in fear
Why do people love to hate?Another day and more bad news
I wonder who died today
I can't tell if I'm hearing truth or liesI guess, they lied to make me feel afraid
I can't believe a single word they sayCry another tear
'Cause the devil will not wait
Living in fear
Why do people love to hate?Cry another tear
'Cause the devil will not wait
Living in fear
Why do people love to hate?
Love to hate
