Torn

Seabound

I pose in foam
Attracting no one
I'm on my own
I'm torn
Forming extinct species
Just like my own
Naked to the bone
I'm torn

As white turns black I know
It's light these pictures lack
A tree of life that has no leaves
I'm feeling grief beyond belief

As white turns black I know
It's light these pictures lack
A tree of life that has no leaves
I'm feeling grief beyond belief

I smile at wine and downers
A blade, the phone
I'll quit this all time low
I've sworn
My legs shape Vs and Ss
Amid the storm
From this sea of red
I'm born
Or torn ?
Or am I ?

As white turns black I know
It's light these pictures lack
A tree of life that has no leaves
I'm feeling grief beyond belief

As white turns black I know
It's light these pictures lack
A tree of life that has no leaves
I'm feeling grief beyond belief

If you love me you will find me
