I Don't Really Mind

Tame Impala

Shifting, shifting, shifting aloud like it makes so much difference to me.
Huffing, puffing, marching around like I know how much better it should be.
I know it looks like I disagree nine tenths of the time...
But I don't really mind
But I don't really mind
But I don't really mind

But I don't really mind Childhood puppy is old and gruff, your mother wants to give him away.
Piller of strength was lifted off his deathbed, 3 weeks ago today.
But I don't really mind
But I don't really mind
But I don't really mind
But I don't really mind
