

Lady Godiva

Dr. Hook

Seventeen a beauty queen
She made a ride that caused a scene in the town

Her long blonde hair hanging down around her knees
All the cats who dig striptease praying for a little breeze

Her long blonde hair
falling down across her arms hiding all the lady's charms

Lady Godiva

She found fame
and made her name
A Hollywood director came into town

And said to her (hey!), How'd you like to be a star?
You're a girl who could go far 'specially dressed the way you are

She smiled at him and gave her pretty head a shake That was Lady G's mistake

Oh, Lady Godiva

He directs Certificate X and people now are craning their necks to see her

'Cause... she's... a... star
One that everybody knows finished with her striptease shows Now she can't afford her clothes

Her long blonde hair

lying on a barber's floor Doesn't need it long any more

Lady Godiva
