

Silk

EnstrÃ¼mantal

Dangerous is you to me, addicted I sure am
Lock me up and keep me from this devil's master plan
It mystifies me how you drive me crazy with a kiss
 Spellbound, boy, I still dream of this
 I like the way you look at me
 Every morning when I wake up
 I can't deny, sometimes I believe
 Give me what I need
 Your touch is like silk
 Stroking my body
 Softer than skin
 Bringing the pleasure in
 Your touch is like silk
 Making me shiver
 Making me sweat
I must get free of this boy I can't forget
 Your touch is like
 Your touch is like
 Your touch is like
 Silk, silk
Fragile is this broken heart, can't take this pain no more
Inflammable is my whole life, yes, I've been burned before
Keep my distance though I'm drawn to everything I miss
 Tongue tied, I can still taste your kiss
 I like the way you smile at me
 In the evening 'cross a crowded room
 I can't forget how good it feels
 When you're close to me
 Your touch is like silk
 Stroking my body
 Softer than skin
 Bringing the pleasure in
 Your touch is like silk
 Making me shiver
 Making me sweat
I must get free of this boy I can't forget
 Your touch is like
 Your touch is like
 Your touch is like

Silk, silk
Your touch is like silk
 Stroking my body
 Softer than skin
Bringing the pleasure in
Your touch is like silk
 Making me shiver
 Making me sweat
 Stroking my body
 Softer than skin
Bringing the pleasure in
 Making me shiver
 Making me sweat
I must get free of this boy I can't forget
 Your touch is like
 Your touch is like
 Silk, silk
