Never Again....Again

Nate Sallie

It was the fiftieth time
I told you goodbye
And I swore it was the last time
But then the phone rang twice
I was running right back so fastAnd now Im here at your door
Asking for more, like a favorite pastime
So good for a second or two
But it never seems to last
Didnt I say just yesterday?Never again, again
I keep saying that it's over
But I'm still hereI could have sworn I said
Never again, again
I keep falling into you
You won't disappear
I keep telling myself
Never again, againHere we go again
Again, again, again
Again, again, again
Again, again, againI just wanna let go
Its outta control
A no win situation
Why do I do what I do?
I cant help myselfYou say everything's changed
But its still the same
Just a lot of aggravation
Cant quit, I take a hit
Now I dont feel so well
Didnt I say just yesterday?Never again, again
I keep saying that it's over
But I'm still hereI could have sworn I said
Never again, again
I keep falling into you
You won't disappear
I keep telling myself
Never again, againWith each other
Just another day in paradise
Yeah, right
I'm fallin' again [Incomprehensible]
I'm fallin' again

[Incomprehensible]Never again, again
I keep saying that it's over
But I'm still hereNever again, again
I keep falling into you
You won't disappear
I keep telling myself
Never again, againNever again, again
I keep saying that it's over
But I'm still hereI could have sworn I said
Never again, again
I keep falling into you
You won't disappear
Never again, againAgain, again, again
Again, again, again
