

All Alone On Christmas

Darlene Love

The cold wind is blowin' and the streets are getting dark
I'm writing you a letter and I don't know where to start
    The bells will be ringing Saint John the Divine
I get a little lonely every year around this timeThe music plays all night in Little Italy
    The lights will be going up on old Rockefeller's tree
    People window shopping on Fifth Avenue
All I want for Christmas is you(Tell me) I've got to know
    Where do lonely hearts go
Because nobody ought to be all alone on ChristmasThings are different since you've been here last
    Childhood dreaming is a thing of the past
    Maybe you can bring us some hope this year
Visions of sugar plums have disappearedDo you remember sleigh riding in the snow
    And dancing all night to "Baby, Please Come Home"
    Today's celebration is bittersweet
There's mothers and children in the street(Tell me) I've got to know
    Where do lonely hearts go
Because nobody ought to be all alone on ChristmasI'm all grown up but I'm the same you'll see
    I'm writing you this letter 'cause I still believe
    Dear Santa I've been good this year
Can't you stay a little while with me right here(Tell me) I've got to know
    Where do lonely hearts go
Because nobody ought to be all alone on Christmas
