The Co-Dependent

Sia

Feels like we are married
And I haven't run away, run away, run away
So many years I've carried you in my arms
Yet I stay, yet I stay, yet I stayAnd still I come a running when I hear
The telephone, telephone, telephone
And I ask for absolutely nothing
In return, in return, in returnI'm gonna watch you drink it all
I'm gonna watch you fall
You'll find me by your side
If you find me at allSo here it is on offer everything
I have to give, have to give, have to give
My love for you allows me not to judge
The way you live, way you live, way you liveSo just remember that whenever you
May feel alone, feel alone, feel alone
Yeah, I am here, there's nothing to fear
I will be your home, be your home, be your homeI'm gonna watch you drink it all
I'm gonna watch you fall
You'll find me by your side
If you find me at allI'm gonna watch you drink it all
I'm gonna watch you fall
You'll find me by your side
If you find me at allI'm gonna watch you drink it all
I'm gonna watch you fall
You'll find me by your side
If you find me at allI'm gonna watch you drink it all
I'm gonna watch you fall
You'll find me by your side
If you find me at all
