

Silent As The Grave

Hell Is For Heroes

Tie the knot, hang to dry
Pull the plug, kill the light
Celebrate your demise
Funeral of a god, set to end from the start
Buying back stolen dreams
Back up plans fall apart
Hear the sound drowning out
Tired of this cover up forced
Demure fake design
Make it up on the spot
Make your own choice
You decide coming down from the fence
I will be on your side
Watch the spark fizzle out
Tear the page, turn our backs
Shed the weight, burn the shreds
Hide the trace moving on
To the next way of life
Clocking out for a while
And I may be some time
The last surprise has rung out a free for all
Squaring up for the charge bring out the knife
Cut this deal, no more surprise
We have been surrounded
