

Silverado Bench Seat

Granger Smith

Girl you shine like a brand new dime
Like a song in rhyme I can sing to
I bet them boys all stand in line
So they can take you out and try to win you
My boots and jeans don't go so well with a
White tablecloth and a ritzy hotel
I'm used to my simpler days
So baby climb on in this truck
I'll show you what I mean I wanna love you on a silverado bench seat
Fogging up the windows
While we're parked down by the creek
No other light besides the stars and the moon
That's what you get when a country boy loves you A girl like you is just so pretty
You've been wine and dine all over this town
I wanna take you far from the city
Back on a back road
And watch the sun go down I wanna love you on a silverado bench seat
Fogging up the windows
While we're parked down by the creek
No other light besides the stars and the moon
That's what you get when this country boy loves you

It was clear around midnight
If the sky was right
How the water starts dancing in the moonlight
If you want a country boy lovin you
And girl I know you do I wanna love you on a silverado bench seat
Fogging up the windows
While we're parked down by the creek
No other light besides the stars and the moon
That's what you get when this country boy loves you

When this country boy loves you
On the silverado bench seat
