

Shot By Love (feat. Toi)

Protoje

You need a bullet proof vest
No need to run!(Toi)
I've been shot by love
And now me can't run away, run away
I've been shot in the heart
Them call it love in the first degree
I've been shot by love
And now me can't get away, get away
I've been shot in the heartThem call it love in the first degree
(Protoje)
Me say me full up a ammunition when me touch down
Love zone knock her down from inna the first round
The love ya realer than the Vatican own
She a the queen fi me African throne
No mercenary Taliban it control
Me a the one fi lock your body and soulJah set the plan, me just a watch it unfold
You overstand, that's why me left it untoldI've been shot by love
And now me can't run away, run away
I've been shot in the heart
Them call it love in the first degree
I've been shot by love
And now me can't get away, get awayI've been shot in the heart
Them call it love in the first degree
(Protoje)
Me say me shot you with me loving but your life ain't gonna end
No need for running, this is just the beginning
Aiming for the target, the tranquilizer tame you
And cupid him coulda never have dem aim ya
Now you really won't forget wha' true love feel like
Me loving touch you heart and knock you down in a real life
Love in the first degree, you know say me do it right
And fill her up with the real type, sleep tight
I've been shot by love
And now me can't run away, run away
I've been shot in the heart
Them call it love in the first degree
I've been shot by love
And now me can't get away, get away
I've been shot in the heart

Them call it love in the first degree
(Toi)

Them say you can't escape it, can't mistake it

When love knocks you down

Now my heart is yours, unarmed and open

You took my barrier down

A shot without a sound

Me never see you coming

Like a stranger in the night

Me never see you coming

I've been shot by love

And now me can't run away, run away

I've been shot in the heart

Them call it love in the first degree

I've been shot by love

And now me can't get away, get away

I've been shot in the heart

Them call it love in the first degree
