Too In Love (feat. Jane Monheit)

David Benoit

VERSE ONE:
Sunshine through the curtains
Early breezes in the air
I was dreaming of my lover
Like I do when he's not thereOver morning coffee
I imagine his embrace
His kiss upon my shoulder
I can lose my sense of time and spaceCHORUS:
When I'm near him in a haze
Not a word to say
It isn't any way to be too in loveVERSE TWO:
Love yields like it's magic
As it captivates your soul
It's the flowers in my garden
It's the sugar in my bowlTenderness and laughter
A connection so profound
Desire beyond no reason
When he speaks I hear the sound of sweetCHORUS:
Soulful music what a rush
When the groove kicks in
It isn't any sin to be too in love[Piano solo]VERSE THREE:
Moonlight on the mountain
Pretty venus on the rise
We go walking by the water
Kiss beneath the shining skies
A love beyond no reason
We get lost in time and space
I do believe it's true
That you really can't be too in love[Piano solo]VERSE FOUR:
Sunshine through the curtains
Early breezes in the air
I was dreaming of my lover
Like I do when he's not thereOver morning coffee
I imagine his embrace
It thrills me through and through
That you really can't be too in love
