

The Legend of Johnny and Sarah

Unwritten Law

Johnny was just a kid I knew
And maybe he didn't have a clue
But he's gone you know it's just a shame
And she's the one to blame Sarah, not just the girl next door
She's well known, I don't go there no more
But Johnny, Johnny found out too late
And she's the one to blame Now he's gone just as quick as he came Well now something had gotten into him
He shouldn't have been
Where the whole town had been, in Sarah
She was his only one
Poor Johnny she's everyone too
