

The Reckoning

Spineshank

Cut
Pain divides
Your descent
From all the Damage that you have become
Blame yourself
Damage done
There is no coming back from this
No absolution from the ones you scar
You see your sorrow through the eyes of a victim
Contamination of the rising star
The anti-vision and design of a fractured intent
Spread your misery conspiracy
The restitution for your life
The depravation of your hidden lie
(Reveals) a muted memory of the damage inflicted Interrogation with a blinded eye
Creates the scapegoat that
Replaces the need to repeat
Fall
Begin descent
Cannot prevent this life
There's no redemption
For a life of this kind
And it will bleed out in time
The reckoning
Self-preservation
And the motives collide
It's just a matter of time
The reckoning
There's no reason now
Design of a fractured intent
Fall
Begin descent
Cannot prevent this life
There's no redemption
For a life of this kind
And it will bleed out in time
The reckoning
Self-preservation
And the motives collide
It's just a matter of time
The reckoning
