

Part Two - In My Own Way

Ray LaMontagne

Lock the door, Draw the shades
Close my eyes, I'm miles away...I'll spend the day, In my own way...Count the hours, Mark the days,
Underneath it all, The rising swirling,
Of the waves...I'll spend the day, In my own way...(Electric Guitar)All the plans, That were made,
Let them die! Let them fade...I'll spend the day, In my own way...Please understand...I'm only human!After all,
Said and done...
Only here a moment and,
The moment's gone...I'll spend the day, In my own way...(Electric Guitar)Please understand...I'm only human!
At times I fail, At times at fault...Don't break your back,
Tryin to carry, Weight of the world
Can't please them all!Ahhhhhhhhh, Ewwwwww
Ahhhhhhhhh, EwwwwwwLock the door, Draw the shades,
Close my eyes, I'm miles away...I'll spend the day, In my own way...
I'll spend the day, In my own way...
I'll spend the day, In my own way....
