

Reaching

Wanda Jackson

oh how i'd love to touch the one i love so much i'll reach and i'll keep reaching patiently passion rule syour heart now pride keeps us apart it hurts but i'll keep reaching desperatley my arms are open wide
although i know you lied
i'm jealous but that you'll never see please tell her today
you're coming home to stay i'll wait but i'll keep reaching desperatley there's something in the air that tells me you still care though prode and passion took you on this spree when you're thru with her well then my arms say welcome in
