Crazy By Myself

Pam Tillis

Well, I see the world thru an unusual lens
A little nutty if you ask my friends
I probably bought my shrink a Mercedes Benz
But its paying off nowFrom clear across the room its easy to see unmistakeable electricity
But thats coming from someone warped as me
So I'll show myself outYour left of centers somewhere over the line
The tall dark and dysfunctunal kind your just my type but baby some other time
You can thank me later
