Detour

Duane Eddy

Nothing can hold me back
I'm stronger than before
You tried to knock me out
But I'm coming back for more
You and your selfish ways
You tried to hold me down
You bet that I would lose
But it's you who's losing now

'Cause I'm on the detour
I've been fortunate to take the detour
There's no thrifin' partner on the detour
I've been fortunate to take the detour

They smile up in my face
Than stab me in the back
You didn't soul me out
You have to live with that
Turn on the TV screen
Flip on the radio
You can't get rid of me
My things unstoppable

'Cause I take the detour
I've been fortunate to take the detour
You can't stop me on the detour
I've been fortunate to take the detour

Should've believed in me
Should've never pulled me out
Said I would never be
I don't need you and your doubts
Didn't want to see
Didn't want to see me reach my destiny

Should've never pulled me out
I don't need you and your doubts
Didn't want to see me reach my destiny

Dance

Detour
Detour
There's no thrifin' partner
I've been fortunate
Detour

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Jackson, Tito Joe / Jackson, Taryll
Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/