

Blue Tattoo (Unplugged Version)

Vanilla Ninja

Once upon a lifetime
The spirits of the dark
Came to kill the beauty
Of our world Every soul was spell bound
And prisoned into ice
Just shining through
Sad as a blue tattoo [Chorus]
Tears have turned to ice
As a sacrifice
Broken voices rise
From the age of the ice
To the raging skies
And they exorcise
'Cause on judgment day
We must hide - we must fight - we must pray - hey
It's a blue tattoo But the monks of mercy
They prayed for every soul
'Til the sword of fire
Took control In a crash of thunder
The ice broke into two
And shining through
There was the blue tattoo [Chorus] You know
Down low
There's a light - it's a true - blue tattoo
Just go
Down low
Gotta hide now - gotta fight now -
Gotta save your soul and pray
Gotta break the ice away
Gotta find the true blue tattoo
