Deadlocked

Concepts

Take your another step into the pit
Your metting death talking
Game set match bitch fingers on the casket
What!?

With the blade of woe the sensatiable
Cuts down the traitor when he feels
The anger blade sharp as razor
He'll remember all the sins
And the shit he's gotta pay for

Breath out
The desease inside eats away at the man you plan to be
Not much has changed with the way you
Play these games with those you love

I try to see things through your eyes
So i can understand who you are and where i stand

For what it's worth
I want to know you better
You've got me feeling like
It wasn't worth the wait, i should've told you
For the sake of saving time

Crystalline eyes where the real truth hides
False figures for the blind with a bloody compromise
(Deceit in that you speak)
(For all the people you meet)
With all the words that you have spoken
Shot around like a brother lie
So sharp so dangerous
Lying to the world is just a game to us
I won't be fooled cause i've learned along the way

You gotta go in on your own
You gotta trust in what you know
You gotta somehow find some way to solo learn all the ropes
All that you hide

All of your senseless pride

I see the blood your eyes tonight

For what it's worth
I want to know you better
You've got me feeling like
It wasn't worth the wait, i should've told you
For the sake of saving time

Don't think you're dead when you're just hopeless
I see the pain in your eyes
And i know we've been addicted
My veins are raging

We're not dead yet and we can be saved
But we're chased by the labels that we claim
Labeled deciever

Deciever...Deciever...Deciever!
The bones of those they betrayed
Have now paved the way

Brace youself i'm afraid we've been mislead
Misguided by idle hands
Where are you know?
Cause i've finnaly figured out
That this road that you lead me down goes
To a place i knew i'd never get out
Alive...Alive... I'm burning from the inside
