

First Time

Billie Myers

Let's go
Yeah, your memories are too Behind every closed door lies another room
Waitin' there for you
Should I open the Pandoras letter box
Like she wanted me to Outside the time and space we share
E always equals MC squared
Dont you know? Nothin' ever tastes quite as good
Quite as sweet
As it does the first time
Yeah, the first time
Nothin' ever felt quite as bad
Quite as sad
As it did the last time Building castles on quicksand
Wearin' in all the Emperors new clothes
Reachin' down through the lookin' glass
Where am I on the yellow brick road? Always endin' where I began
Adam left Eve the original sin
Dont you know? Nothin' ever tastes quite as good
Quite as sweet
As it does the first time
Yeah, the first time
Nothin' ever felt quite as bad
Quite as sad
As it did the last time Law of diminishin' returns
Will I live long enough to learn?
Dont you know?
I dont think you know
I dont think you know I know, I know what I said
I know, I know what I said the first time
Yes the first time
I hope that God this wont be
I hope that God this aint the last time
It feels like the first Nothin' ever tastes quite as good
Quite as sweet
As it does the first time
Yeah, the first time
Nothin' ever feels quite as bad
Quite as sad
As it did the last time Nothin' tastes that good

Nothin' ever tastes that good
Nothin' ever tastes that good
Nothin' tastes like it should
Dont you know?Nothin' ever cuts quite as deep
Quite as sweet
As it does the first time
Yeah, the first time
Nothin' ever hurts quite as much
As a touch left by the last time
The first time
The first timeI want the last time to be like like
The first time
Well you know
Nothin' ever tastes that good
That good
