

Love Will Save Your Soul

Grouplove

Walking down the street, man you're so bold (So bold)
Seen your mom and dad and they're so cold (So cold)
Love will save your soul
Of feeling so alone and growing oldClimb on up them stairs, man you got sold
Lost my train of thought and now I'm told
That love will save your soul
Of feeling so alone and growing old
Love, love, love,
Yeah love, love, loveGot a sneaking sense your hunt's for gold
Teachers cracking rules and now parole
Love will save your soul
Of feeling so alone and growing old
Love, love, love
Yeah, love, love, loveLove will always save your soul (Your soul)
Love will always save your soul (Your soul)
Love will save your soul
Love will save your soul
Love will always save your soul
Love will always save your soul
Love will save your soul
Love will save your soulLove will always save your soul
Love will always save your soul
Love will save your soul
Love will save your soul
