

Scar

Equatronic

How can I know?
How can I see it through your eyes?
Now you know
All those promises were lies
You close your eyes
You close your mind
To all you lost
I count the days
I count the ways
I count the cost
All that you are, no conscience
All that you leave, no pride
All that you take, no reason
All that you leave, no pride
All that you lose, no sorrow
All that you find, no shame
Can't take away the scar you left behind
How do you cry?
When you've run right out of tears
You justify
But the pain won't disappear
I count the days
I count the ways
I count the cost
All that you are, no conscience
All that you leave, no pride
All that you take, no reason
All that you leave, no pride
All that you lose, no sorrow
All that you find, no shame
Can't take away the scar you left
You close your eyes
You close your mind
To all you lost
I count the days
I count the ways
I count the cost
All that you are, no conscience
All that you leave, no pride

All that you take, no reason
All that you leave, no pride
All that you lose, no sorrow
All that you find, no shame
Can't take away the scar you left behind
