

Stronghold

Yngwie Malmsteen

Alright, alright You sacrificed
And worked all your life
Now you're bleeding
Crying all for nothing, nothing You waiting for that day
And you're always praying
For the gates to finally open, open Into my stronghold
You will never take
My stronghold, yeah, yeah Well you can bring
And army's might
But I will always fight
Until the end, the end You'll never break down my walls
I'll never fall, what's mine
I'll defend, defend Into my stronghold
You will never take
My stronghold
I'll show you no mercy Into my stronghold
You will never take
My stronghold, yeah Into my stronghold
You will never take
My stronghold, yeah Don't believe
What you have heard
Don't believe
A single word, not a word Into my stronghold
You will never take
My stronghold, yeah, never, no
