

Forgiven

Kwabs

Blood and dust
Sweat and smoke
I hold my tongue 'til I choke
Bring myself to pay for these stones that feel the hurt we feel
What's a man without a soul waiting for life?Cut me down and watch me bleed
I made you king, so shame on me.
Unbroken ground, sacrificed
The lost to found, Fools' Paradise
But I'm a man who needs to hope
You can't make me hypeI won't let myself be forgiven
I won't say that I've done wrong
You say I'm stuck in my ways, but out of my mind
Did what I did 'cause I had to survive
I won't let myself be forgiven
I don't need to justify
If it's too much for you to take
Then save yourself, and walk away
'Cause we can't stand on shaken stone
Head to head, two hearts alone
We've got nothing else to hold
But it don't make it rightI won't let myself be forgiven
I won't say that I've done wrong
You say I'm stuck in my ways, but out of my mind
Did what I did 'cause I had to survive
I won't let myself be forgiven
I don't need to justifyI can't deny
Baby you could save me
What if I need just to fall?
I won't let myself be forgiven
I won't say that I've done wrong
I've been stuck in my ways, but out of my mind
Did what I did 'cause I had to survive
I won't let myself be forgiven
I don't need to justify

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.