

Snow White

Streetheart

Sha na sha na na na, sha na sha na
Sha na sha na na na, sha na sha na
Your life's a fairy tale,
10 o'clock, you're off to bed.
School night, it doesn't matter,
Out the window, down the ladder.Snow White, you're squeaky clean,
People think you're peaches and cream.
School uniform looks so charming,
But underneath, you're quite alarming.Snow White, staying out all night,
Snow White, shakin' in the hot lights.
Snow White, home before the daylight,
You got the perfect disguise.
Sha na sha na na na, sha na sha naSnow White, the teacher's pet,
Straight "A"'s ain't all she gets.
Special classes after school,
I bet I know who's teachin' who.Yeah, Snow White, staying out all night,
Snow White, shakin' in the hot lights.
Snow White, home before the daylight,
You got the perfect disguise.
Sha na sha na na na, sha na sha naSha na sha na na na, sha na sha na
Sha na sha na na na, sha na sha naSnow White, staying out all night,
Snow White, shakin' in the hot lights.
Snow White, home before the daylight,
You got the perfect disguise.
Sha na sha na na na, sha na sha naSnow White, staying out all night,
Snow White, shakin' in the hot lights.
Snow White, home before the daylight,
You got the perfect disguise.
