

Turn Off the Lights

Panic! at the Disco

I got so sick of being on my own
Now the devil won't leave me alone
It's almost like I found a friend
Who's in it for the bitter end
Our consciences
Are always so much heavier than our egos
I set my expectations high
So nothing ever comes out right
So shoot a star on a boulevard tonight
I think I'll figure it out
With a little more time
But who needs time
Turn off the lights, turn off the lights
Turn on the charm for me tonight.
I got my heavy heart to hold me down
Once it falls apart, my head's in the clouds
So I'm taking every chance I got
Like the man I know I'm not
So sick of wasting all my time
How in God's name did I survive
I need a little sympathy
Disarm my insecurities
Our consciences
Are always so much heavier than our egos
I set my expectations high
So nothing ever comes out right
So shoot a star on a boulevard tonight
I think I'll figure it out
With a little more time
But who needs time
Turn off the lights, turn off the lights
Turn on the charm for me tonight.
I got my heavy heart to hold me down
Once it falls apart, my head's in the clouds
So i'm taking every chance I got
Like the man i know I'm not
Oh, oh, oh, mmhmm
A heavy heart on the boulevard tonight, oh
Shooting stars watch me fall apart tonight, whoa oh oh oh oh
Turn off the lights, turn off the lights
Turn on the charm for me tonight
I've got my heavy heart to hold me down
Once it falls apart, my head's in the clouds
So taking every chance I got
Like the man I know I'm not
Oh whoa, oh whoa, oh whoa
Oh whoa, oh whoa, oh whoa

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>