Sorry I Let You Go

Phil Perry

I'm sorryHello baby goodbye
I really didn't get to sleep last night
Thought of you and what to do
I decided to say goodbyeAll the things I've been through Showing you the years of loving you
I was there when no one cared
So tell me what could I doSorrySorry I let you go
Even in my heart
You'd always know that you were the one for me
I can't believe
Sorry I let you goWinter turns into spring
I think about all the joy you bring But to me
Now you're gone
I write this song
for you to believe in meI never understand
How your heart can be broken
And I never let you fall
I should have been a better man
Whispered words are unspoken
But now I know
I just can't let you goI'm so sorry babe
Sorry I let you go
Even in my heart
You'd always know that you were the one for me
I can't believe
Sorry I let you goI'm so sorry babe
Sorry I let you go
Even in my heart
You'd always know that you were the one for me
I can't believe
Sorry I let you goYou're the one for me
I can't believe
I'm sorry I let you go
