Blank Page

Christina Aguilera

I know there's hurt, I know there's pain
But people change lord knows I've been no saint
In my own way regret choices I made
How do I say I'm sorry? How I do I say I'm sorry?I was scared, I was unprepared
Oh, for the things you said
If I could undo, that I hurt you
I would do anything, for us to make it through
Draw me a smile and save me tonight
I am a blank page, waiting for you to bring me to life
Paint me your heart let me be your art
I am a blank page, waiting for life to startLet our hearts stop and beat as one together
Let our hearts stop and beat as one foreverHow can I erase decisions I've made?
How do I go back? What more can I say?
All that remains are hearts filled with shame
And how do we say we're sorry? How do we say we're sorry?But I was scared, I was unprepared
Oh, for the things you said
If I could undo, that I hurt you
I would do anything, for us to make it through
Draw me a smile and save me tonight
I am a blank page waiting for you to bring me to life
Oh, oh, oh, oh, paint me your heart let me be your art
I am a blank page waiting for life to startLet our hearts stop and beat as one together
Let our hearts stop and beat as one forever(Let our hearts stop and beat as one together)
I'd go back in time and I'll realize
(Let our hearts stop and beat as one forever)
Our spirits align and we'd never dieDraw me a smile and save me tonight
I'll be your blank page, waiting for you to bring me to life
Oh, paint me your heart let me be your art
I am a blank page, waiting for life to startAnd let our hearts stop and beat as one together
Let our hearts stop and beat as one, forever.
