Felines

Front 242

They come to track down the sobbing
They come to sully the sorrow
To see the bloody insides
To eat their fear of despairThey come to track down the sobbing
To pulverize the most intimate painsLet's feed the felines
Let's feed the felines
Let's feed the felines
Let's feed the felinesBury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circles
Bury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circlesBury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circles
Bury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circlesDeeply caught in their conceit
They gather to check their luck
The vultures sweeping down upon the street
To eat their fear of despairLet's feed the felines
Let's feed the felines
Let's feed the felines
Let's feed the felinesBury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circles
Bury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circlesBury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circles
Bury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circlesLet's feed the felines
Let's feed the felines
Let's feed the felines
Let's feed the felinesBury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circles
(Let's feed the felines)
Bury your head in the sand
Or go 'round in circles
(Let's feed the felines)
