

Love

Mary J. Blige

Well it was like a party
But the kids seem to scatter off
(Kids seem to scatter off)
You told me all those lies
That I said you did
And I can't give you one more chance
But I betcha I will show you
That the pick of a letter comes a little thicker
(And I said it would)
And it's been comin' for a long timeL
Let's get you ready for another, another lifetime

O

Our position is just to see what you can do

Become a victim on the verge, I'll kick your ass now

This is serious so you'll know what to doYou been wastin' time
Are you out of your mind

Well you show me some loveWith intentions so high

You probably need a place to count your cash

(Need a place to count your cash)

You said you're sorry so many times

And I'm sorry that you ever did

Well you can take your life of love

And stick it up in your main frame

'Cause there'll be no more second chances

No more hot romances

(And I like it this way)

(So let me break it down for you)L

Let's get you ready for another, another lifetime

O

Our position is just to see what you can do

Become a victim on the verge, I'll kick your ass now

This is serious so you'll know what to doBetter stop playin' me start lovin' me

I ain't the same woman givin' love for free

All my life sittin', thinkin' how to please you

Been flyin' so long now, my screws are loose

'Cause you play to lose
Now it's time to move
'Cause I'm sick and tired of playin' the fool
Would you play the lose?
And I play to win
Tried not to sin
Tried to be your friend Like every other girl
Never sexed your friends
But it's over now
And you saying, "How?"
I found something new
That worth the while
Instead of meesin' with a bump cat poster child
But I'm focused now
People saying, "Wow!"
In place of a frown on my face, a smile
You must be out yo mind
I have no time to get you ready for a love of a lifetime
Let's get you ready for another, another lifetime
O
Our position is just to see what you can do
Become a victim on the verge, I'll kick your ass now
This is serious so you'll know what to do You been wastin' time
Are you out of your mind
Well you show me some love L, O, V, E
Let's get you ready for another, another lifetime
Our position is just to see what you can do
Become a victim on the verge, I'll kick your ass now
This is serious so you'll know what to do
