Blue Moon Rising

The Bordom Generators

Some people like that
Some people like that
Some people like thatCome on all my people, come one and all, one and all
If you want all your people right there, right then
Your better ladys dead and theyre appalled, and theyre appalledCome into my palace, come and see my hollow walls
The servants crawl, its gonna be a blue moon risin'
Risin' one and all, one and all, some people like thatGonna get them with your money
All that shines gets polished bald, could not enthrall
Gonna get them like a tweedledee or a tweedledum
Classiest sales pitch aint an equal sum, it aint gonna be funCome into my dreamworld, a simple smile, not a loaded gun
Just a shine in the sun, its gonna be a blue moon risin'
Risin' one and all, one and all, some people like thatSome people like that
Some people like thatThen somethin' like children in the moonlight, aah ooh
Then somethin' like children in the moonlight, aah ooh
Then somethin' like children in the moonlight, aah ooh
Then somethin' like children in the moonlight, aah oohIts gonna be a blue moon risin', risin' one and all, one and all
Its gonna be a blue moon risin', risin' one and allSome people like that
Some people like that
