

Watch Them Fly Sundays

Stereophonics

I'd just like to say
I remember the day
I first woke with youSome days yo' have to admit
The way we happened to meet was strange
Because it was newNot drinking no more, not drinking no less
Not sleepin' at all, never in the same bed
Undressed at the bar, engraved bench in the park
We'd watch them fly, SundaysFly, birds 'round my head again
Laughed at the words you sent
I pushed the boat back to youI flew from the rain again
Killed you with what I said
And you already knewNot thinking no more, not drinking no less
Not sleepin' at all, never in the same bed
Undressed at the bar, engraved bench in the park
We'd watch them fly, SundaysThey say, "If something should fly away
An' flies back to you again
Then it's yours"

Songwriters

JONES, KELLY / CABLE, STUART / JONES, RICHARD MARKPublished by Lyrics Â© Universal Music Publishing Group

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>