Korn

Walking alone inside my world
Thinking I'm doing the right thing
Destroying all that appears before me
It was all done in vainBorn again through fire
Born again through pain
Born again with violence
Born again with shameTaking this place to call my own
Raping my body without a face
Tortured, my soul is black as pitch
And I have no life to waste
Born again through fire
Born again through pain
Born again with violence
Born again with shameI worshiped you
Do anything
So lost and helpless
I played your game
I worshiped you
Do anything
So lost and helpless
I PLAYED YOUR GAME!
Born again through fire
Born again through pain
Born again with violence
Born again with shame
