

Unforgettable Romance

Jean B. Gerbier

Unforgettable Romance

I

When we entered the garden in the evening,
the sun went down in the melting clouds.

I threw a handful of sherries at you,
while we held the blossom flowers.

We felt the ecstasy of love all around the lilies across the garden.

Chorus

Unforgettable romance, while the sunset cast.
Unforgettable romance, making love around the flowers unforgettable romance, you brushed your lifs against mine.

II

I leaned against a Christmas tree, took you in my arms.
I loved you deeply you were beautiful and charming in the twilight.
You were trembling with agitation, while I touch you with passion.
I pull a handfull flower petals hand them to you.
