Whisper

Burn The Ballroom

Come in sit down sweet angel leave me all your tears Tell me all of your troubles the weight of your short years
Love is only a river drowning all of your cheer Sell me all of your laughter and I will take some of your fear
His favorite days were the mornings she came with confessions of cardinal sin A beast in the business of selling forgiveness dead eyes on a treacherous grin And he laps up the vice like a wolf in the night he's the left hand of God on the stage And with one hand he offers salvation to lovers the other it taketh awaySo give me your fire give me your fear give me your faith when love gives you tears Give me your heart give me your fate give me your hand when love gives you hate Give me your prayers up on your feet and I'll give you a show it helps fill the seats
So give me your sins give me your lies but whisper
your love
And I'll whisper mineHis favorite line was the one formed outside where they trade in confessions for lies A beast in the business of selling forgiveness and buying salvation with wine And he cries out to God how can you claim them all when I know that they are all mineSo give me your fire give me your fear give me your faith when love gives you tears
Give me your heart give me your fate give me your
hand when love gives you hate
Give me your prayers up on your feet and I'll give you a show it helps fill the seats
So give me your sins give me your lies but whisper
your love
And I'll whisper mine

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/