

Thanks For Leaving Me

Inme

I look out the window for a cloud
That you might be under
But the sun is going down too early
Invisible embers showering my eyes
For none to see
Where is you calling?
Call it curiosity, you send
I send, we congregate
And it's hereditary
Couldn't conceal it
If she hadn't left me
Would I be lying here with you?
If she hadn't said goodbye
Would I be smiling here with you?
If she hadn't hurt me
Would I be healing here with you?
Let go of any sorrow
Thanks for leaving me
A separate feeling
One so far away
It almost hurts
Common ground
Settle down at square one

Baby, steps get bigger every time
Holding you close to me
Sleeping in an empty bed
I kiss you, you twist this serenade
And it's hereditary
I want you to feel it
Now there's no time anymore
For playing silly games
So I'll get right to the point
If you say my name
And step into my shadow
I'll wash it away for you
If you take my hand
And promise me forever
I'll give it all up for you

If you say my name
And step into my shadow
If you take my hand
And promise me forever
There's no more pain
The tears are superficial
There's no more shame
The years of blame dissolve
