

Tell Him I Said Hello

Betty Carter & Ray Bryant

When you see him
Tell him things are slow
There's a reason and he's sure to know
 But on second thought, forget it
Just tell him I said helloIf he asks you when I come and go
 Say I stay home 'cause I miss him so
 But on second thought, forget it
Just tell him I said helloLook into his eyes
 When you speak my name
Maybe there's a spark to start another flame
 Do I love him?
 Don't say yes or no
 If he should ask you
 But he won't I know
 Cause it's all over and forgotten
 Just tell him I said hello
 Look into his eyes
 When you speak my name
Maybe there's a spark to start another flame
 Do I love him?
 Don't say yes or no
 If he should ask you
 But he won't I know
 Cause it's all over and forgotten
 Just tell him I said hello
