The Fire Theft

Now I know what I need to do
Become the man I believe I am
Now I know that I've got to try
Become a man, lay down in the quiet
Love my girl, get a job, feed the world, choose a godIs there something I should know now
To make it work tomorrow
Cause it's night and I fear the wolf
He says one thing but does another
Never wanted the blood
Now I can't see the day
Now that I've buried my life away
Can I dig it out again?Believe in all the good things you keep inside
There is no freedom in life without freedom of mind
I find myself running from fate
Whether or not I'm hunted by circumstance every day
RearrangingWind and waves and the cool of a muted sound
Remembering a reason to be born
Taking back the hope that men destroy
Oh buried your life when you can fill it up with joyBelieve in all the good things you keep inside
There is no freedom in life without freedom of mind
I find myself running from fate
Whether or not I'm hunted by circumstance every day
RearrangingWind and waves and the cool of a moon-lit sound
Hole in the cloud from the tears of faded crowds
Remembering a reason to be born
Taking back the fire from all the gods
I can't bury my life when I can fill it up with joy
I can't bury my life when I can help you with the choiceBelieve in all the good things you keep inside
There is no freedom in life without freedom of mind
