Starflyer 59

Time moves, you knew it would
You'd leave them all
After their plainer thoughtsYou lose some, I knew you would
You'd leave them all
After their plainer thoughtsTime away
I wish you'd call on meBecause I knew we would We'd leave them all
After their plainer thoughtsYou lose some, I knew you would
You'd lose them all
Some how they just forgotTime away
I wish you'd call on me
