No Class

Plasmatics

Shut up, you talk too loud
You don't fit in with the crowd
I can't believe you exist
I've crossed you right off my listToo much, too soon
You're way out of tuneNo class, no class
No class, no classToo late, you're way out of line
No buddy I can't spare a dime
Fade out, baby that's right
No bark and even less biteYour perfect smile
Betrays your lack of styleNo class, no class
No class, no class[Incomprehensible]Too late, you can't catch up now
You face the wrong way anyhow
I know you ain't got the brain
To come in out of the rainToo bad, no magic
I'm afraid you're merely tragicNo class, no class
Baby no class, no class
Ah baby, no no class
