

Losing My Mind

Soldiers of Jah Army

There's no pictures on the wall there's no rise and there's no fall and in the morning, I'ma ride alone without you There's no phone and there's no calls there's no talkin to you at all and I don't care late at night when its not you
But when I go out in the rain, I think about the past
I want it again, I think about the way
you feel inside and im losing my mind
There no formulated plans there's no way and there's no chance its been too long and its all back behind me There's no going down that road and I know right where to go if I keep walking away nothing reminds me
But when I go out in the rain, I think about the past
I want it again, I think about the way
you feel inside and im losing my mind
There's no fights and there's no tears theres no need if you're not here but I'm not the same way anymore There's no need to write this song cuz there's no changing whats been done but there's no changing whats inside
But when I go out in the rain, I think about the past
I want it again, I think about the way
you feel inside and im losing my mind
