

Lost (Johnson Somerset Remix)

Bryan Ferry

Believe me when I write
I can't tell you what is wrong
And what is right.
Lost in the mirror of the storm Life takes you by surprise
Like the colours I see dancing
In your eyes
Lost in the mirror of the storm Don't miss me when I fall
You know I want to be with you
Or not at all
Lost in the mirror of the storm So I am forsaken and forlorn
As I face up to the shadows
On the wall
Lost in the mirror of the storm
