

Too Much of Me

Jonah33

When I let myself believe in me
I feel my faith become riddled with disease
I remember the day You spoke my name
You said, "Come, follow me"
But my stand is weak, I feel ashamed
I say, "Don't bother me" Too much of me and not enough of You
Put me in this mud that I'm crawling through, yeah
I need You to free me from this impurity, impurity
Yeah, yeah, yeah So I'll crawl to You
So full of shame
I know You're there for me
But it doesn't feel the same, feel the same Too much of me and not enough of You
Put me in this mud that I'm crawling through, yeah
I need You to free me from this impurity, impurity
Yeah, yeah, yeah
There's too much of me
Yeah, yeah, yeah You take me by the hand and reveal to me
Why You created me
Now I understand why, why You've been called
The King of Kings Too much of me and not enough of You
Put me in this mud that I'm crawling through, yeah
I need You to free me from this impurity, impurity Too much of me and not enough of You
Shoved me in this hole and I'm calling You, yeah
I need you to free me from this impurity, impurity
Yeah, yeah, yeah There's too much of me
Yeah, yeah, yeah
There's too much of me
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
