What I Would Do to You

Shrub

if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you, if you, only knew, what i would do to you.
if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you, if you, only knew, what i would do to you.you are my sweet temptation.
nobody loves me the same.
you give me sweet conversation.
when your calling my name.you give me good vibrations, putting others to shame.
i'll give you good education, will you make the grade?if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you,
if you, only knew, what i would do to you.
if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you, if you, only knew, what i would do to you.well, ill take the black one.
you can have the white one, ill take the left one,
you can have the right one,
you're a tight one, baby girl, a nice one,
drive to your house,
find out if you like ummm, so hang tight like a snipe gun,
'cause my caddy's in the shop, so im gonna make a bike run, got my training wheels off, and if my chain falls off, i'll hitchhike with my right thumb,if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you,
if you, only knew, what i would do to you.
if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you, if you, only knew, what i would do to you.oh. oh. oh. oh.
oh. oh. oh. oh. oh.if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you,
if you, only knew, what i would do to you.
if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you, if you, only knew, what i would do to you.if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you,
if you, only knew, what i would do to you.
if you, only knew, what I would do to you, you, you,
if you, only knew, what i would do to you.
