

Leaving Heartbreak Hotel

The Temper Trap

All my, all my friends
When can I see you all again?
Built our castles made of sand
They may fall but memories remain
Don't let this end
Dreamin' of way back when
In and out your door

We were all someone else before
Leaving shadows on each other's walls
Laughed and cried, and laughed and cried some more
So don't let this end
Dreamin' of way back when
Don't break the spell
I'm leaving the heartbreak hotel
Catch you in my sleep (x5)
Catch you in my sleep (I'm leavin' the heartbreak hotel) (x6)
