A Gentle Heart

Neil Halstead

Subtle shift in the way she smiles
Subtle look and the whole world cries
Well, I got two heads to live today
I got two hearts to give awayTo the rescue, babe
Theyre coming far from here
Down among the pines
There's nothing far from here
See you some time
Since day when the weather fine
Yeah, Ill see you some timeGentle heart never hurt a soul
You live in trust and you learn to love
In silent darkness I hold your hand
I dont get much but I get the way she rollsTo the rescue, babe
Theyre coming far from here
Down among the pines
There's nothing far from here
And Ill see you some time
Some day when the weather fine
Yeah, Ill see you some timeI got two heads to live today
I got two hearts to give away
And I wont trust a love that is
I wont trust a love that is not blindTo the rescue, babe
Theyre coming far from here
Down among the pines
There's nothing far from here
And Ill see you some time
Some day when the weather fine
Yeah, Ill see you some timeTo the rescue, babe
Theyre coming far from here
Down among the pines
There's nothing far from here
And Ill see you some time
Some day when the weather fine
Yeah, Ill see you some timeIll see you some time
Yeah, Ill see you some time
