Indifferent to Suffering

Chimaira

Unrelenting addiction, the struggle continues
The urge to satisfy isn't the question
Just don't want to be around to face the consequences
Fake smiles surround to ensure the desire
As perverse as it seems, it stays who leads their waste of time?Ever wondered what it's like to have dreams last forever
Never doing again, from the everlasting of themLife feeds off life
Indifferent to sufferingLiars grow stronger the taste is similar
To the sweetest kiss ever encountered
A painful bliss on my head, picture painted
(Painted)
Could not capture an ounce of the true sensation
That is derived from some sorrowEver wondered what it's like to have nightmares last forever
Never doing again from the constant tortureLife feeds off life
Indifferent to sufferingHow, how sweet it is Sweet, how sweet it is
It's beyond this life
Is beyond this life
How sweet it isLife feeds off life
Indifferent to suffering
